Important notes to the parents:

- The catechists volunteer their time to this program because they believe in the religious potential of the child. In order for the children to fully explore the joy of their relationship with God, parents must be committed to bringing their children faithfully to the program. Please kindly let the catechists know via e-mail if your child must be absent for a session.
- The program consists of a minimum of 20 sessions per year. This year, we expect to hold 23 sessions - 10 before Christmas, 11 between Epiphany and Easter and 2 after Easter. In the event of unavoidable family responsibilities, some sessions may be postponed; however, we will try to ensure this happens as rarely as possible. Extra sessions would be scheduled if necessary to ensure the minimum of 20 sessions is offered.
- Curious about the nature of the program and the presentations that the children will see? An adult information session will be held in late September/early October 2016 to demonstrate how the children will work in the atrium and what a typical CGS session will look like.
- We invite parents to be involved in their child's catechesis. Parents are welcome to observe their child in the atrium; however, we would ask that a date and time be set up after the child has become comfortable with the routine and environment of the atrium.
